

THROUGH THE COURAGE TO LIVE A
LIFE of PURPOSE

LEGACY BANQUET and CONCERT

January 17 & 19, 2020

The annual Realizing the Dream celebration, now in its 31st year, is presented by a community committee made up of representatives from Shelton State Community College, Stillman College, the Tuscaloosa Chapter of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and The University of Alabama. Its purpose is to honor and sustain the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

LAURA LING

Friday, January 17

6:30 p.m.

Sellers Auditorium
Bryant Conference Center
The University of Alabama

Award-winning journalist and author Laura Ling has been recognized with both an Emmy and a national Edward R. Murrow award for her correspondent work for “SoCal Connected,” the hard-hitting news magazine series. She is host of “Everyday Bravery,” a podcast series about finding the courage within ourselves to overcome our biggest challenges, and is a service ambassador for Points of Light, a nonpartisan organization dedicated to solving social problems through voluntary service.

JONATHAN McREYNOLDS

Sunday, January 19

7:30 p.m.

Moody Music
Concert Hall
The University of Alabama

Gospel artist Jonathan McReynolds has ascended to Christian music’s biggest stage in just a few short years. His second album, “Life Music: Stage Two,” received a Dove Award, a Grammy nomination and multiple Stellar Award nominations. His latest full-length album, “Make Room,” debuted at No. 1 on Billboard Gospel and has been hailed as his best work, earning eight Stellar Awards and two Grammy nominations.